

Guests at the White House. A lovely group of pages of the Daughters of the American Revolution received by Mrs. Harding a few days ago during their convention in Washington. Mrs. Willoughby Chesley, in the center, is in charge of the pages.
U. & U.

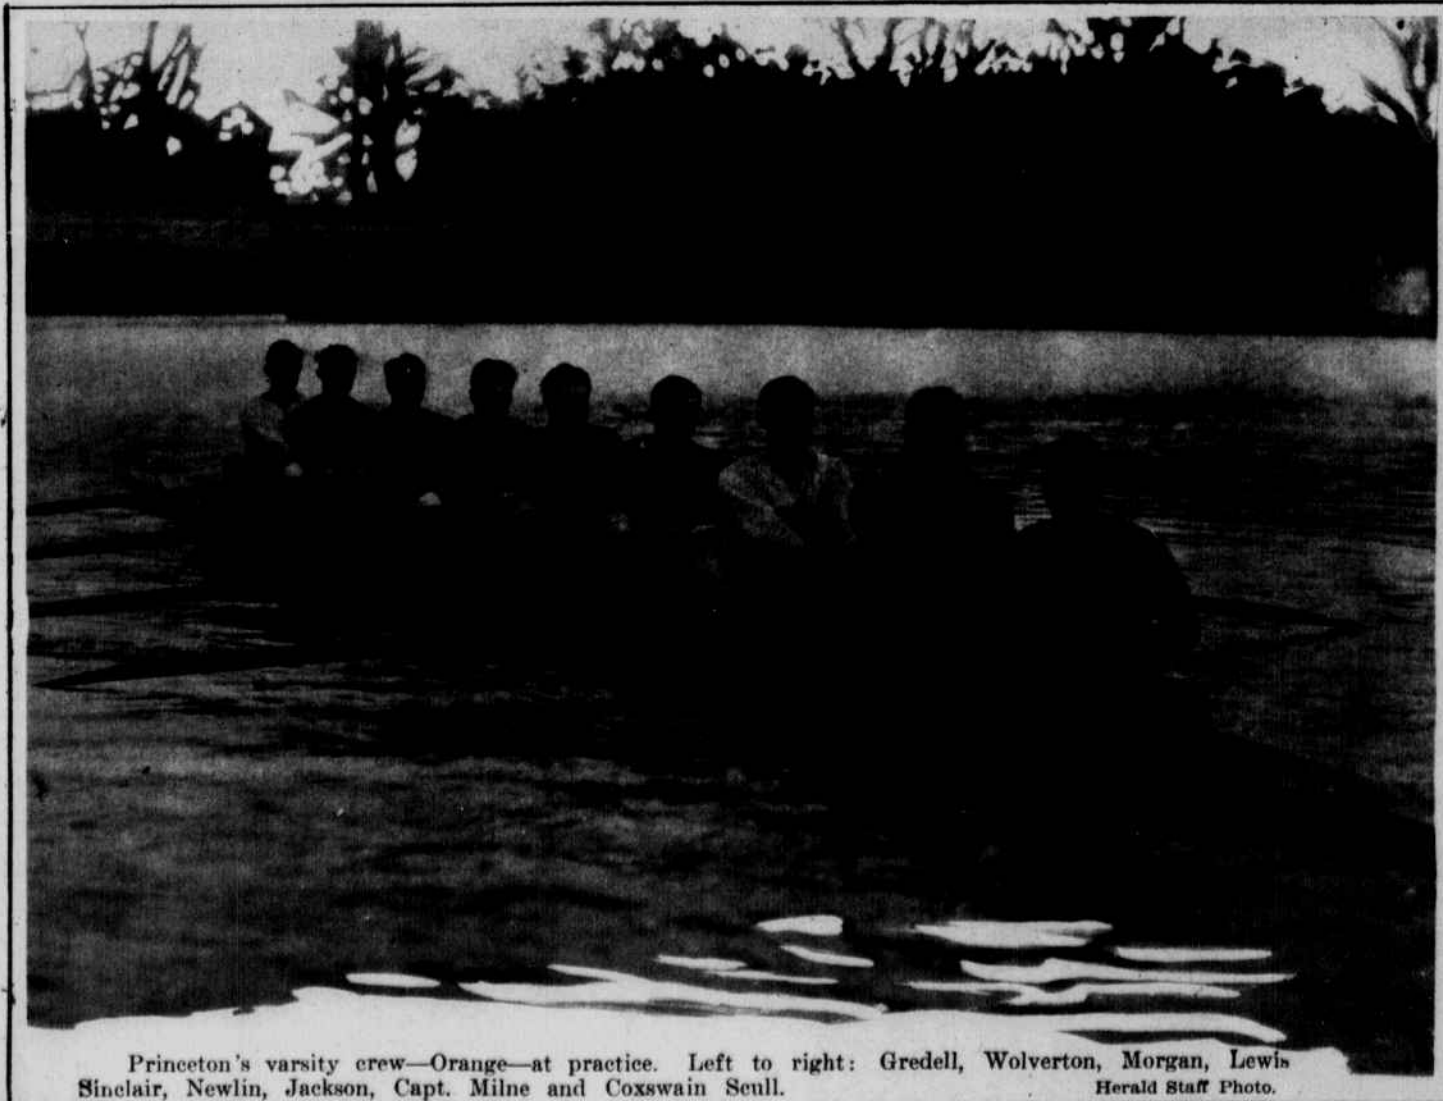

"The Start"—the horses getting away at the Ashford Selling Plate meet at Kempton Park, England, one of the principal British racing events of the year.

Mr. Griffith, President of the Dail Eireann, on his way to deliver his sensational speech in defiance of the De Valera soldiers, who had warned him not to appear at Sligo. He is seen here in the truck which took him to the town surrounded by his "Guard of Honor."
Wide World.

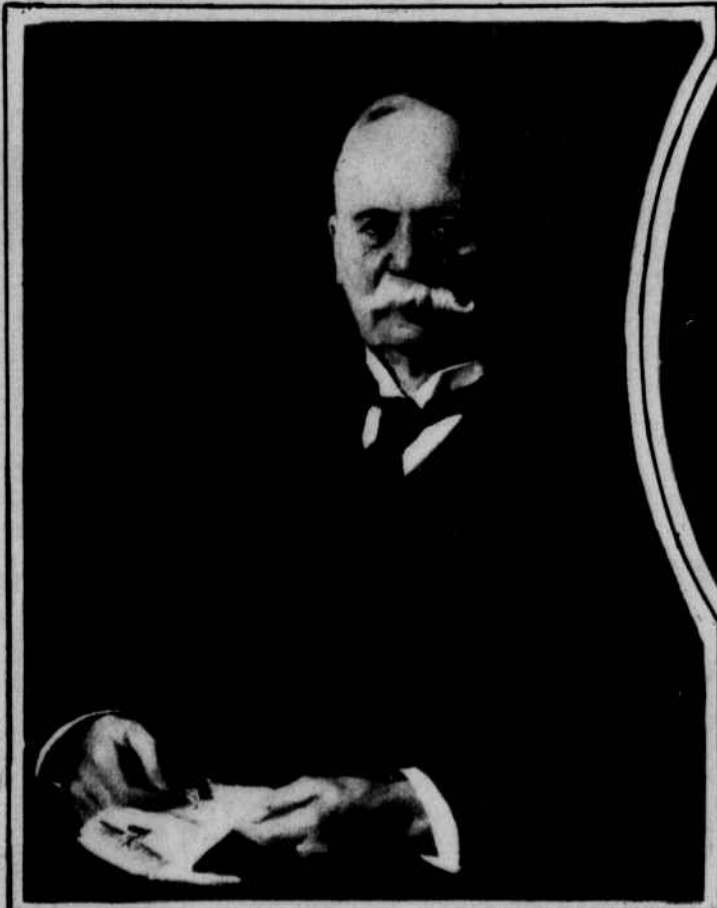

Above—The German delegates at Genoa. Dr. Wirth is in the center.
P. & A.

Princeton's varsity crew—Orange—at practice. Left to right: Gredell, Wolverton, Morgan, Lewis Sinclair, Newlin, Jackson, Capt. Milne and Coxswain Seull.
Herald Staff Photo.

A new member of the bar. Miss Susan Brandeis, daughter of Justice Louis D. Brandeis of the United States Supreme Court, at her desk in her new law office. She has been accepted as junior member of a prominent law firm.
K. & H.

One of Canada's foremost statesmen and industrial chieftains, the Rt. Hon. Senator Nathaniel Curry, from a new painting by Harris Brown, now on exhibition in New York.

Grandchildren of Commodore Gerry. The boys are Eddie (left) and Gerry.